

Success at the 2024 Walcha Show

THE STATION ANGUS – SUPREME EXHIBIT AND CHRIS LISLE MEMORIAL TROPHY WINNER: From left Emily Scrivener, The Station King T106, Austin Scrivener, Mitch Scrivener, Chris Lisle's nephew Scott Hawkins and Chris' long time friend, fellow Hereford breeder and judge Chris Law of Hunday Herefords.

The decision to take three heifers and a bull to the 2024 Walcha Show for their first outing was definitely a good one for The Station Angus, Yarrawitch.

The Station Angus exhibited:

- Heifer XTS22T56 The Station June T56
- Heifer XTS22T102 The Station Jean T102
- Heifer XTS22T154 The Station Economyx T154
- Bull XTS22T106 The Station King T106

At the conclusion of the two days of judging, The Station Angus walked away with three major trophies and were named most successful exhibitor in the cattle section.

Results:

- Junior Champion Angus Heifer – The Station Jean T102
- Junior Champion Angus Bull – The Station King T106
- Grand Champion Angus Bull – The Station King T106l
- Nairn Park Trophy
Two beef females not over 20 months old, bred and owned by exhibitor
- Ivybank Trophy
Grand Champion Bull of the show
- Southcote Shorthorn Trophy
Supreme animal of the Show, Grand Champion Female and Bull to compete
- Chris Lisle Memorial Trophy
Most successful exhibitor

JUNIOR CHAMPION ANGUS HEIFER: The Station Jean T102.

IVYBANK TROPHY: Grand Champion Bull of the Show, The Station King T106, Austin Scrivener, Emily Scrivener and Colleen Green from Ivybank, Walcha.